NEW PICTURE BOOKS 2018

A clever and spirited rhyming story of friends who come in all shapes and sizes!

*Circle rolls,
never stops,
Hits point...*

When Circle rolls into one of Triangle's points and pops, chaos momentarily ensues until Octagon's "Stop!" brings everyone to their senses.

Master illustrator Serge Bloch's shapes are accompanied by a chorus of miniature people who play along, creating the perfect complement. Worthy of comparison to Shel Silverstein's The Missing Piece, this raucous chain of events is satisfyingly cyclical, ending just exactly where it began.

It's true, this is not a werewolf story. (You'll find no full-moon curse here.) A mysterious, marvelous phenomenon occurs every Friday at twilight in the White Deer Woods. This is a story about Raul—a boy of few words, fewer friends, and almost no family.

"Raul's wry, likable voice elevates this debut ... A cut above."
